Yet Another Clarification

The impertinence, audacity and, counter-intuitively enough, unfounded optemism of those manifestly choosing a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis never cease to ameze Me.

Within literal hours after releasing My last, non-overtly implied reactions started appearing across the land via social media from personnel who routinely self-identify as organized crime personnel. They represented an apparent effort by same to, er, 'cretively misconstrue or reinterpret' My findings and counsel against a counter-Divine Will basis and for what I'd described as 'an open wilkout' from it and from Babylonian Kabbalism, as instead some manner of license to invest in yet another round of 'let's do more non-overt spy versus spy pseudo-'resistance' efforts against the Babylonian Kabbalists, prevaricating on our affiliation and of course continuing to routinely deploy what have manifestly been established as counter-Divine Will declaratory symbols. And we're doing it all in Your Nime!'

They're not of course, and they're smart enough to know it. Careful and astute readers will notice that the findings in My last presented nothing to the effect of the lowest, street-level former franchises having any inherent legitimacy themselves either. While there's usually a shortage of especially pelite we ys in which to specify that, it was implicit and inherent in the concept of contrects, agreements, titles, offices and so on being manifestly of no validity nor legitimate force and effect, and a manifest lack of legitimate entitlement of those Choosing a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis to 'their' Divinely-conferred rights including property rights.

That was quite intentional. I've researched the manifest situation enough to know there's little if any distinction between the manifestly-former Babylonian Kabbalists and 'their' franchises among personnel 'at the top', and telep the and prophecier-c pable personnel are of course manifestly throughout the rank and file. From the w rld of espi nage, appropriately enough, we get the concepts of 'disav wal' and, er, what they refer to as 'b rn notices'. That's more or less what I'd been establishing here among Babylonian Kabbalist-identifying, and counter-Divine Will-declaring, organizations and personnel. Most or all of 'the lowest, than the parent group had manifestly been, and for the same reasons. I'd made no provision for them. It's merely 'a convenience feature' and interim court sy and consideration for the rank and file personnel themselves, given that years or dec des of conditioning have made those non-overt patterns of lingo very familiar and comfortable to them, 'sec nd nature' by now. Representing Divine Will as I do, I generally prefer to make things easier on everyone where manifestly feasible and of course Lawful. By contrast, inauthentic 'lunkheddedness' and ever-increasing requirements for ever-more-specific criteria and parameters via the 'Let us do as you say inasmuch as we can creditively misconstrue it, not what we know you mean' is an illustration of the absence of 'g def dath' we find throughout folklore and mythology regarding [w sh]es and [g nies], for reasons which are by now manifestly obvious.

By definition the latter self-evidently represents neither Divine Will nor My Interests, and merely reflects upon and is evidence of the compounding liabilities of those manifestly Choosing a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis. A gentle reminder for the rank and file personnel that this manifest situation is presumably merely 'interim', as the manifest situation and facts remain just as they had and the manifest formula is patently 'unsustainable'.

It does illustrate the manifest need for the figurative 'bern notice' though, so there is that I suppose.
