Hours after My last, and implied non-overt organizing symbolism begins coming in from seasoned manifestly-former Babylonian Kabbalist professionals.

'Gosh! That's awful! Let us get right on it, implementing a group-wide effort to alert the rank and file personnel to how utterly scandalous it is to use manifestly-former [Is's]' iffy prevarication non-overt mode. They're just awful, and thoroughly vile! Don't worry, we'll take care of the menace for You! And we'll use it as something to offer You to gain Your 'buy-in' onto a counter-Divine Will basis nobody wants!'

That's effectively like snapping to attention and saluting in an exaggerated parody, then thumbing ones' nose. We've already established that while they're still manifestly implementing a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis their efforts are effectively irrelevant and less than useless.

As presented already, 'it's [through] all the way down'.

Personnel appear to be familiar and comfortable with professional competence being assessed in terms of who's a 'seasoned professional' and experienced enough to be able to glean the subtlest of non-overt drifts and propagate same, 'over the heads' of the less-experienced personnel and public generally. That's incidental to upholding Divine Will and True Nature and typically a conflict of interest with them. Personally and professionally, this is about who else if anyone can be relied upon to consistently Choose Divine Will and True Nature, and do so on their own recognizance without direct and constant oversight. Personnel manifestly seem unfamiliar with that prioritization scheme, which values the trust and [integrity] commensurate with the Choice for Divine Will and True Nature, which is presumably why the organization has manifestly [exposed] professionally along with so many of My 'personal interest' relationships. It's all nothing without trust, and that's unavailable when people are still manifestly Choosing a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis.

To save on the paperwork here, if something like this manifestly recurs they can and presumably should 'take it as read' that it not only doesn't represent My interests, and that I already know that, but that it's in direct conflict with them and has been assessed as such. Every manifest investment in a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis is an investment in liability; another instance of those 'penalty symbols' by their own Choice. As that's not an especially difficult concept to 'get', we can reasonably assess that sort of professed incompetence as insincere and thus manifestly 'performing below capacity'. Not entirely dissimilar to the concept presented by that [disability] symbol, and how unrolled-for here.

That personnel have manifestly become so unfamiliar with actually prioritizing Divine Will and True Nature comes as a rather unsettling confirmation of the routine and systematic misprioritization of the system as a whole and the invalid basis on which they're accustomed to being. Result: More 'disrespect' due to their Choice for a counter-Divine Will, counter-True Nature basis that's an [absurdity] in the first place. It's the Lot's wife thing all over again, seemingly endlessly. But only seemingly.
